

CURRICULUM VITAE 2017

JAIME C. YOUNG, MA

jaimecyoung00@gmail.com

(617) · 947 · 9725

EDUCATION

University of Chicago, Chicago IL June 2017

Master of Arts Program in Social Sciences (MAPSS)

Advisor: Dr. Marc Berman

University of Massachusetts, Amherst MA December 2012

BA in Psychology (Cum Laude)

University of Wollongong, NSW Spring 2012

BA in Psychology

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Technician, University of Chicago 2016--Pres

Environmental Neuroscience Lab, Dr. Marc G. Berman Chicago, IL

- Running Qualtrics surveys. Managing IRBs; collection, cleaning, and analysis of data.
- Conducting T3 fMRI collection; recruitment, prescreening, collection. Conducting eye-tracking collection; recruitment, prescreening, collection.

Research Technician, Tufts University's Health Quality of Life Lab 2014--2016

Social Self-Management of Parkinson's Disease, Dr. Linda Tickle-Degnen Medford, MA

- Assisted with developing/revising study protocols through the SBER--IRB. Aided in recruitment/outreach activities; ascertaining eligibility requirements and obtaining informed consent. Facilitated meeting between the research center and the leaders of various Parkinson's groups. Performed audio-video lab procedures: setting up audio-video equipment for collecting data, creating backup audio--video data, creating and monitoring storage and privacy of audio--video data, assisting in running audio-video rating/coding sessions, troubleshooting audio--video operation. Conducted quantitative and qualitative interviews with participants: face--to--face and telephone
- Helped to track data entry and performed basic data analysis

Research Assistant, Department of Psychology/Neuroscience 2012-2014

Anxiety and Addiction of Alcohol in Adolescence, Dr. Heather Richardson Amherst, MA

- Collected, prepared, and analyzed tissue for analysis. Aided in the development of publications, posters, and presentations. Handled and cared for animals. Inventoried supplies and kept updated accounts. Created chemicals and compounds necessary for study progression

Research Assistant, Department of Psychology 2011

Child Development Lab, Dr. Lisa Harvey Amherst, MA

- Established guidelines for coding of 100+ tapes of family interactions and coded tapes in accordance with guidelines. Attended regular meetings comparing and ensuring validity of codes. Organized and maintained lab and materials

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant Department of Psychology Introduction to Psychology (PSYC100)

2012

Professor Mark Lange

Amherst, MA

- Designed lesson plans and facilitated multiple weekly discussions with students to clarify and elaborate on course content
- Constructed and presented lectures introducing basic neurological principles in relation to anxiety and addiction
- Graded student assignments
- Attended weekly meetings discussing progress within the course and addressing any issues needing improvement

Teaching Assistant Department of Psychology

2012

Psychology of Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Identity and Experience (PSYC391ZZ)

Professor John Bickford

Amherst, MA

- Maintained open lines of communication for students to clarify aspects of material
- Facilitated discussions during class on controversial topics
- Graded assignments within the guidelines of the Professor
- Handled and organized all assignments and lesson plans

COMMITTEE SERVICE

Community Service Chair: PsiChi Honors Society

2010-2012

- Organized and facilitated all charity events
- Aided in weekly meetings
- Maintained open lines of communication with members regarding upcoming events and opportunities

Vice President of NSCS Honors Society

2010-2012

- Maintained local website through both NSCS.org and Facebook
- Organized charity events, fundraising events, and induction ceremonies
- Held weekly meetings keeping members informed of and involved in upcoming events

ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Eastern Psychological Association (EPA) member
- Graduate Student Affiliate Member of American Psychological Association (APA)

HONORS AND AWARDS

Master of Arts Program in Social Science

With Distinction

Overall GPA 3.822

BA in Psychology

Cum Laude

Major GPA 3.778

Overall GPA 3.617

Psychology Departmental Honors

University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Fall 2009, Spring 2010, Fall 2010, Spring 2011, Fall 2011, Fall 2012

Comcast Leaders and Achievers Scholarship Recipient

2009-2010

PUBLICATIONS

Sprague Martinez, L., Thomas, C.A., Saint-Hilaire, M., McLaren, J., Young, J., Habermann, B., & Tickle-Degnen, L. (2015). Community Outreach in Parkinson's Disease Research: The Benefits of a Team Science Approach. To be submitted to Parkinsonism and Related Disorders. Manuscript in Preparation.

CONFERENCE POSTERS

Sprague Martinez, L., McLaren, J., Young, J., & Tickle-Degnen, L. (2015). Assessment informed outreach and engagement in Parkinson's disease research. A poster presented at Translational Research Day 2015: Innovations in Clinical Trial Participant Engagement. Tufts University Clinical and Translational Science Institute, Boston, MA.